

nke equips the winner of the first two legs of the Velux 5 Ocean.

Bernard Stamm, with Cheminée Poujalat Open 60', nke's partner, wins the two first races of the Velux 5 Ocean, the international race around the world.

The Swiss has won the two first legs of the race, the first one between Bilbao and Fremantle (Western Australia) and the second between Fremantle and Norfolk (Virginia, United States). The Japanese Kojiro Shiraishi, who arrived in second position during the legs, is also equipped with nke products, as well as the English Sir Robin Johnstone, who was in third position for the second leg.

Those three skippers have chosen nke for their electronics on board, and our pilots allowed them to triumph in the extreme conditions of these two first legs of the Velux 5 Ocean.

nke is pleased to participate to the victory of those skippers and we are waiting for the end of the last leg of the race, from Norfolk to Bilbao...
